Trade Show Booths 3.0

What are Clever Frame® modular exhibition systems and what makes them so popular?

Clever Frame® modular exhibition systems offer great versatility in terms of design, available features, and configuration options. As the name suggests, they consist of individual modules that can be used in various ways – for example, by combining them into large-scale trade show booths or creating compact promotional walls. These systems can be customized in terms of structure and visual appearance, providing limitless opportunities for brand image building.

In mature marketing, there is no room for experiments at the expense of efficiency. This guide presents proven exhibition solutions that we have been delivering to companies like yours for years.

How does the Clever Frame® system work?

Quickly, intuitively, conveniently!

01

The booth structure consists of frames. The more frames you have, the larger the setup you can create.

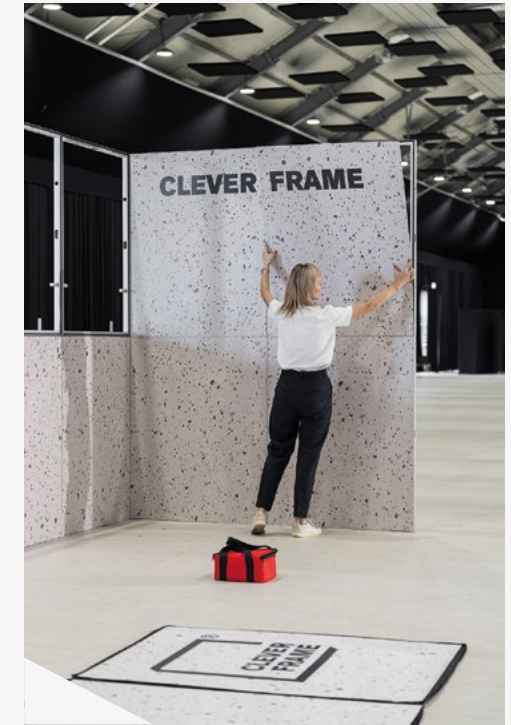

02

Assembly of the system is easy and intuitive. Thanks to special connectors, no tools are needed.

03

The booth's graphic display is made using magnetic panels - their installation takes just a few seconds.

04

The booth is quickly ready for use. If needed, you can reconfigure it as desired.
